Important Information for the March Election

by Debra Arrett

You will select two of the four candidates to serve on your Board of Directors on the ballots being sent on February 21. In this Tipster you will find their answers to a few questions and an insert for each candidate. Candidate Forums will be held Thursday, February 16, 6:30 PM and Friday, February 17 at 9 AM in the Auditorium. The candidates will give opening and closing remarks and answer questions prepared by the Election Committee and from the audience. The Election Committee has also developed a new digital format, and videos of candidate interviews will be on the website in February.

The ballot will also include a couple of amendments for your consideration as follows:

Proposed new Section 6.3(e) to the Bylaws:

Incorporating, creating, acquiring or otherwise operating or having any interest in a business venture that is not currently part of the Association's operations. This would include a real estate brokerage of any kind, whether the Association leases office space to a real estate brokerage or owns and/or operates the real estate brokerage itself. In order to do any of these things, the Board would need approval of a simple majority of the owners voting in an election duly called in accordance with the Declaration of the Bylaws.

The change to the Bylaws necessitates a change to Article III of the Articles of Incorporation as follows:

To own, operate or have any interest whatsoever in a real estate brokerage or any other business venture, including the leasing of office space to a real estate brokerage, so long as the revenue of the business venture goes toward support of the foregoing objects and purposes noted elsewhere in this Article III or elsewhere in the Association's governing documents.

Forums to further explain and answer questions about the above amendments will be held Monday, February 20, 6 PM, and Tuesday, February 21, 9 AM in the Auditorium. The Election Committee will also give more information and a demonstration on the option to vote electronically at those times.

Thank a Volunteer

Doing good may be its own reward, but most volunteers would probably agree that it's also nice to be recognized for the time, effort and commitment they put into serving others—particularly in what can sometimes seem to be thankless roles.

Members of our community devote their energy and enthusiasm to making our community the very best it can be by serving on the Board, a committee and on neighborhood projects. And, volunteers help keep assessments down—every hour of volunteer work is an hour of salary the Association does not have to pay a service provider.

Below are some easy ways to show your neighbors how much you personally appreciate their hard work.

- When you see a committee member/volunteer, introduce yourself and say, "Thanks!"
- Watch in March for committee accomplishments and thank committee members for their unselfish service to SCOV.
- Send an email to a volunteer explaining that he or she is valued for stepping up.

Even better than thanking someone for their service, you can apply to serve on a committee yourself. There's a committee application on our website at suncityorovalley.com >members-login >committees >committee-member-application.

As volunteers, your neighbors invest their time in projects that benefit you. No association can thrive without them, so let them know you appreciate their efforts.

Have an idea for recognizing volunteers? Contact a Board member and share.

Special Meeting of the Board

Special Vote – Secret Ballot

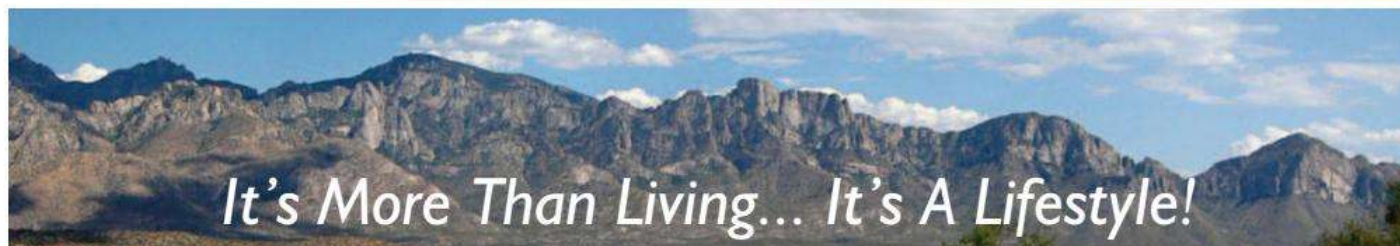

State law says no more secret (anonymous) ballot without Bylaw amendment. In a recent meeting with our attorney it was made known to us that as of July 1, 2016 the state law no longer allows us to conduct an anonymous election unless our Bylaws specifically provide for a secret ballot (A.R.S. 33-1812.A.6). Our Bylaws do not currently have that provision. This means that you will be required to provide your name, address and signature on both the return envelope and the ballot. This is different from our previous process where you were required to sign only the outer envelope (not the inner envelope or ballot) allowing for a secret ballot. On Tuesday, January 17 the Board voted to conduct a special vote to amend the Bylaws to allow for a secret ballot. If the community would like to continue its practice of an anonymous (secret) ballot, then the community will need to pass the amendment. USPS and electronic ballots were sent out on January 17. If you have not received an opportunity to vote, please contact the Administration Office. The results of the vote will be known on Thursday, February 23.

It's More Than Living... It's A Lifestyle!

Where We Have Been: A Recent History of Sun City Oro Valley

by Jim Williams

Active adult communities are a relatively new idea in American living. The first such community, Sun City, located northwest of Phoenix, Arizona, opened in 1960. Sun City Oro Valley was the first of this type of community in the Tucson area. Like all active adult communities, these neighborhoods begin with a population of the original homeowners and new buildings constructed in the first few years. As time progresses, the population changes as new residents purchase existing homes. Each new group of residents has different interests and concerns than earlier homeowners. Sun City Oro Valley (SCOV) has seen gradual change to update the community and meet the needs of newcomers while satisfying the desires of existing residents. "Every active, adult community faces the issue of providing services that the incoming age group wants. It keeps changing over time," noted former resident Tut Tustison.

Construction of SCOV began in 1986 and the first residents moved into homes in the next year. The 2,488 houses and a number of community buildings were completed by July 1995. At that time, the Del Webb Corporation ceded control of the property to the homeowner's association and a board of directors elected by the community. Some major changes were made to the physical plant in the years 1995-2004. The community built the Catalina Vista Recreation Center and installed a new golf course irrigation system. The Welcome Center was purchased from a private investor and paid for in part through a special assessment to all homeowners in 2000.

The original residents were happy with what was here at the start, and physical facilities were still new. By the early 2000s, however, some parts of the physical plant were showing signs of age. At the same time, new residents came in and advocated changes and improvements. A number of proposals for change were made in the early 2000s but did not go forward, primarily due to financial issues. Boards of Directors (BOD) said "Thank you, but there's no money available," remembered resident Leslie Platt. The Board then directed a committee of residents to develop a long range plan in 2004. The group recommended 21 changes, including improving the fitness facilities.

Resident Jack Evert recalled that the Board accepted the report but "refused to do anything."

In the years from 2005 through 2012, some community members and a majority of the SCOV Board favored significant changes to policies and the physical plant. The SCOV community was split over these proposals and several major controversies ensued. Proposals for change created division and ill feelings among the residents. The community experienced a number of angry meetings which garnered bad publicity in the Tucson press. Some new proposals were adopted, while others were defeated in community-wide votes or dropped by the Board due to resident pressure.

In the years since 2012, major changes have been proposed and adopted by the Board or approved through a community vote. Policies have been updated and numerous improvements have been made to the community buildings in the past four years. As community attitudes evolved and new residents moved in, there has been much less opposition to these changes. By 2016, SCOV had been updated in many ways and the community was more united than it had been in previous years. Sun City Oro

Valley is progressing. With updated policies and buildings, it is better positioned to attract buyers and maintain its vitality and marketability in the coming years.

2005 - 2007: Calls for Change

Beginning in 2005, the SCOV Board made important changes to our community. They passed a Capital Fund policy to provide money set aside for future, major construction and renovation projects. New home buyers would pay a Capital Contribution Fee equal to the annual homeowner dues. The Board also increased annual dues and allocated $ 261 per home to the Asset Reserve Fund. Both the Capital Contribution Fee and the Asset Reserve Fund additions could be used for repairs, remodeling and new construction. Members of the Board began to realize that "you have to plan ahead – projects can't be financed out of cash flow," recalled Tustison. Over the next few years, the Board began to build up the Capital Fund, Contingency Fund and Asset Reserve for future projects.

The Board of Directors made other changes in 2005 to improve the community. They established the Beautification Committee. This group would monitor homes throughout SCOV and report violations of the Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions (CC & R) of the community. Today these documents are known as the Master Declaration. The committee name was later changed to the Neighborhood Pride Committee. The SCOV Board also gave permission to establish a dog park along the southern end of Del Webb Boulevard.

Community signs reflect both the name change and the updated approach to landscaping.

The number of annual pass holders and total play on the community's golf course had been in decline for several years. SCOV was impacted by "the national trend away from golf," noted Platt. The number of annual pass holders declined from 750 in the 1990s to 250 today. New nine-hole passes and other innovations did not slow the downward trend. The Board agreed to study whether to allow nonresidents to purchase memberships to boost golf revenues.

In early 2006, the SCOV Board committed to complete major renovations and additions to the Pro Shop, Craft Complex and Café. Residents who used the various craft rooms had lobbied the Board for improvements. Many new residents felt that the Café was inadequate. "The Café was not the type of entertainment/food amenity that this new group of buyers preferred," commented resident Don Coleman. While some found the building too small and the menu limited, other residents were satisfied with the Café as it was. The project to renovate and expand both the Craft Complex and Café was approved in June 2006, but by a split 4-3 vote that reflected community division on this initiative. This project ran into major problems. Town of Oro Valley permits were delayed, unexpected costs occurred and additional actions were required to satisfy the American Disabilities Act. The problems with this project led to delays and cost overruns. These difficulties made it hard to gain resident support for capital projects in the next few years.

In that same year, the Board asked staff to begin a study of the landscaping in common areas owned by SCOV. Residents had recommended that the grass and non-native vegetation be removed in favor of a more desert-like look. "The younger residents were more interested in the environment," remembered Tustison. Desert plantings would also save water costs. Resident Charlie Trull recalled that vegetation changes were the result of "a combination of cost saving and people concerned about the environment."

The issue of declining golf revenues and nonresident play on the golf course continued in 2007. Many residents who held annual passes opposed nonresident play because the golf club had been private since 1987. Nonresident play, they felt, would cut into time for resident golfers. Unfortunately, the dwindling resident golf course memberships were no longer providing enough funds to cover the expenses of maintaining the course. Tustison remembers that "it was a battle!" to change this policy. After numerous meetings and opposing petitions from golfers, the Board approved nonresident play and four such memberships were sold in 2007.

The groundbreaking ceremony for the new dog park was held in May. The Board also created a Solar/Green Energy Task Force that year to research options for policies that would help the environment and save SCOV money at the same time.

SCOV pooches enjoy their new dog park which was dedicated in 2007 (above).

The Publicity Committee made new efforts to attract potential home buyers to visit our community and see it in a positive light. As part of that effort, the Board established the Ambassador Program to offer tours to visitors to SCOV. The Ambassadors had 20 volunteers by December 2007. Some Board members and residents believed that SCOV should conduct and finance marketing efforts to attract new home buyers. Coleman noted that "one of the major priorities of the BOD is the maintenance of home values," and marketing was a key component of this. "Some did not want to spend the money on marketing," remembered Trull.

2008-2012: Protest and Progress

Environmental concerns remained a key topic in 2008. The Board created a Landscape Committee to review current vegetation in common areas and recommend changes that would be environmentally appropriate and save money on watering.

General Manager Scott Devereaux resigned in July 2008. Board members stepped in and managed the community for several months. Bob Mariani was hired and began to serve as General Manager in November of that year. Trull noted that the new General Manager brought "a lot of common sense and he looked objectively at the situation." Platt remembered that Mariani "brought tremendous imagination and energy to SCOV...he realized that a vision for the Community should be shaped by the residents...he was an impressive financial manager."

The Board appointed a Long Range Planning Committee in mid-2008. They were asked to develop a strategic plan for the next several years. This group made eight trips to other active adult communities and did extensive research to gauge the characteristics of our competitors. They also were directed to determine what future retirees would want in a community such as ours. They would report to the Board and the community in early 2009.

Due to major flooding on the golf course over the summer, the Board was forced to approve extensive repairs to the fifth hole at a cost of $150,000. Golf course erosion from flooding would continue to be a problem over the coming years. The Board also agreed to study new colors for the exteriors of the homes and fencing in the community. At the time, only a few colors were available. New colors were adopted in October 2008.

The BOD approved a marketing plan for the community in January 2009. The plan aimed to attract golfers and new home buyers. One month later, the Board approved the establishment of a SCOV Realty Company as part of the marketing plan. The real estate concept angered many residents and realtors who lived in the community. This led to a contentious public meeting in June with much negative comment and raucous behavior from some in the audience. The Board decided not to pursue the realty company plan after the public meeting.

In a measure to conserve water, the Board agreed to remove the large number of cypress trees along the south side of Rancho Vistoso Boulevard. Trull remembered that those trees consumed 8500 gallons of water per week. Some residents enjoyed the trees, particularly when decorated at the holidays, and were upset with the decision.

To further deal with declining golf play by residents and lower revenues, the Board in 2009 agreed to allow Golf Now to offer daily tee times to nonresidents. This outside company would sell tee times unused by residents to any nonresident through the Internet. The golf course was now open to daily resident and nonresident play. It was no longer a private golf course. Trull noted that non-resident play "was a marketing tool to introduce younger people to the community."

Other changes occurred in 2009. Continuing previous efforts to be environmentally friendly and save money, the Board agreed to a $10,000 pilot program proposed by the Landscape Committee. The Board also approved plans to update the Activity Center projection room at a cost of $10,000. Other 2009 improvements included work on new pickle ball courts and the purchase of golf carts for the Ambassador Program. The Long Range Planning Committee presented its recommendations to the community at a public meeting in November. Their report emphasized that SCOV was in competition with other active adult communities and that changes were needed to remain equal to them.

The Catalina Vista Pilot Landscape Project was approved by the Board in January 2010. The cost was to be shared by the Association and the Sun City Vistoso Foundation. This would later result in changes to landscaping at Desert Oasis, the Mountain Vista complex and common areas along Rancho Vistoso Boulevard.

Early in 2010, the Board reviewed the 31 initiatives proposed by the Long Range Planning Committee. They approved 25 of them, including an expansion of the Sports Complex, natural landscaping in all common areas, a marketing effort aimed at "the next generation," new signage and a possible community name change (the community was known as Sun City Vistoso at the time). At the same meeting, the Board established ad hoc committees for the Sports Complex, Name Change, Image and Realty Referral. Each ad hoc committee was directed to develop plans to implement specific items from the Long Range Planning Report, now called the Strategic Plan.

Many community changes followed the adoption of the Strategic Plan. By April 2010 the Catalina Vista Landscape Pilot Program was complete and new desert plants were introduced. Golf Now and Worldmark Vacation Rentals were offering tee times unused by residents to people outside the community. All residents received identification cards in mid-2010. The Board had completed the installation of several pickleball courts on space previously occupied by bocce courts. All five of the ad hoc committees were busy researching and developing plans to put the Strategic Plan into effect. The Ad Hoc Name Change Committee proposed changing the golf course name to "The Views," and the Board adopted this recommendation by a 4-3 vote. The Mountain Vista tennis courts were rebuilt during this time period.

The latter months of 2010 witnessed increased change. In September the SCOV Board began a lengthy negotiation with AT&T to establish a cell phone communication unit in the Clock Tower of the Activity Center. A number of residents opposed this due to environmental concerns, but the Board went ahead with planning. The negotiations with AT&T would not be resolved for some time. The Ad Hoc Sports Complex Committee reported in November that it would offer the Board several options for construction by April 2011. In December, the Board accepted the Landscape Committee's recommendations for removal of some plants and adding others in the common areas along Rancho Vistoso Boulevard from the Big Wash to Del Webb Boulevard.

After much community anticipation, the Ad Hoc Sports Complex Committee presented their recommendations for renovation and expansion of the current facility at a public meeting on April 8, 2011. The group recommended a plan that included new construction in the rear of the Mountain Vista complex, near the community's largest swimming pool. Later that month, the Board rejected the primary recommendation of the Ad Hoc Committee and instead accepted their second alternative. This plan would extend the existing sports complex to the south, with this new construction facing the courtyard and Mountain Vista tennis courts.

By this point, a significant number of residents were strongly opposed to any expansion of the Sports Complex. Some felt that the current complex was adequate, while others objected to the contemporary design of the façade of the proposed addition. Many older residents did not use the facility and objected to more spending on it. Some critics felt that the larger complex would not help to enhance home values. Many opposed spending any additional money or placing a special assessment on each household to finance the cost of the expansion.

The SCOV Board went ahead with the sports complex expansion, now called the Aquatic and Fitness Center (AFC), despite considerable community opposition. They created a Communications Committee to publicize the Board's position on the issue and rally community support. That committee held focus groups with homeowners to elicit their views on the AFC and other issues. This group also developed an informational packet on the AFC that was distributed to each home.

Also in 2011, the Marketing Committee began to spend Association funds to place radio commercials and newspaper advertisements to publicize our community to potential home buyers. The Landscape Committee supervised the introduction of more desert plants in the common areas around the Mountain Vista complex.

In November 2011, the Board approved a budget of $2.5 million for the AFC. Reflecting deep divisions in the community, the motion only passed by a 4-3 vote. One month later, the Board adopted a motion calling for an $844 special assessment per household to fund the AFC project. This would be voted on by the community in March 2012. Proponents of the AFC expansion announced that they raised $55,000 in pledges from community members to help defray the cost of the project.

By early 2012, a significant number of residents vehemently opposed the AFC expansion. They organized a campaign to stop it, including lawn signs, political buttons and leaflets. They asked the Board for the addresses of nonresident homeowners and to use community rooms for meetings on this issue. Both requests were denied. Signs for and against the AFC expansion were seen throughout the community. Articles in local newspapers publicized the divisions in the community to a wider audience.

The community-wide vote was completed on March 27, 2012. The AFC proposed expansion was defeated by a vote of 994 in favor to 1229 opposed. Despite the vote, the current Board continued to favor an AFC expansion. They decided to form a new study group, develop an alternative to the first plan and resubmit this to the community in the following year. A new Ad Hoc Fitness Committee was created to develop a different design. Members of the community who opposed the first AFC proposal were included in the committee. This group worked with an architect to develop a smaller expansion that would be located primarily on the south side of the existing exercise building. The new design would not subtract any space from the courtyard and was designed to blend with the architectural style of the current building. "The process of developing the project also greatly helped heal the community," noted Mariani.

While the community waited for a decision on the AFC, other initiatives moved forward. The construction of the AT&T cell phone unit atop the Bell Tower began in May 2012. The Ad Hoc Name Change Committee recommended to the Board that the community's name be changed to "Sun City Oro Valley." The Board adopted this in April. The Ad Hoc Realty Committee reported that the community strongly opposed an in-house realty company, and the committee was disbanded in August.

Sun City Oro Valley witnessed many proposals for change in the years 2005-2012. Some of these were adopted while others led to controversy and opposition. In next month's Tipster, this article will continue with events and changes in the years 2013-2016 and a summary of where we are at present.

Bringing It to the Board

You live in an HOA. You have a great idea. You're not on the Board. What next? Present it.

Presenting a good idea, whether to a board or to anyone else in the position to approve it, isn't about them. Or you. It's about the idea.

A good idea needs a spokesperson. And if you've come up with the idea, that spokesperson is you. If you can imagine the concept and how it will benefit your community, paint that picture in your presentation. Or, if you can count the ways it will profit your community, tally it up and explain how the numbers will help.

As you are preparing, run your idea by a friend and someone you think might be opposed to the idea. And before you present your idea at the next Board meeting in the Call to the Audience, contact our Board president or General Manager to let them know you'll be sharing. The Board meetings dates and times are published on our website under Members>Board.

On the day, you might be nervous. Understandably so. Who wouldn't? That's why advice about picturing audiences in their underwear exists. But better than that, picture your idea. In full regalia.

Give your idea wings and a voice, and it can fly.

Busy Times

January through the end of April is a busy time. The SCOV community is filled with winter residents and their guests plus we have many winter renters. Many renters is a great sign that we have much to offer them during the winter months. Sometimes they are not always aware of rules or where certain events are being held. I hope you will help them out when they need information. When we live here, we all take for granted where the Auditorium is, but someone new may not know it is in the Activity Center. So if you see someone new on the treadmill next to you, in the pool, on the golf course or just around the facilities, just say hello.

New Development Standard Enforcement

In December 2016, the Board approved a new Development Standard regarding the height of shrubs located near a driveway within close proximity to the sidewalk which could possibly block line of sight if someone is exiting a driveway.

No shrub or planting which significantly obstructs sight lines of persons exiting a driveway in an automobile, golf car or the like, shall be allowed. Such shrubs must be pruned to a height of 42" or less to allow a safe exit. Development Standard Section 2.17.c.vii.

In order to give residents ample time to inspect their front landscaping for this situation and trim the shrubs, no violation will be sent for three months on this matter. Beginning May 1, the 42" height rule will be enforced.

Please check your shrubs so that the line of sight is not obscured by the height of your bushes and take action to prune them.

Misconceptions About Painting

When new paint colors are introduced (such as in March 2015), you must paint your house right away.

You must paint your house only when the house needs painting, not when new colors are approved. When it's time to repaint, you must use the colors from the current approved color palette.

You can repaint your house in the same colors that exist on your house currently.

You must use colors from the most current SCOV-approved schemes unless you are doing a minimal amount of touch-up such as after a repair. Maintenance painting of houses, using the previously approved colors is allowed, provided that it represents a minor portion of the total surface area of the house, not to exceed one side of the house.

You can mix colors from one palette with colors of another palette. After all, they are all approved.

Currently the colors have been approved within 23 separate schemes. Each scheme has its own body, trim and optional door colors. Mixing one scheme with another is not allowed.

I may only use Dunn Edwards paint.

You may use another paint company to mix the Dunn Edwards colors as long as they match the Dunn Edwards colors perfectly.

I can't choose a color scheme that my next door neighbor used.

Currently, there is nothing in our documents that prohibits using the same colors.

I don't need HOA approval to paint my house as long as I use the right colors.

You do need to fill out and turn in a SCOV Paint Submittal Form at the Welcome Center. This way your chosen paint colors are on file for future reference, and they will be verified as correct so no costly mistake is made.

Board Candidates Answer Questions

Jan Fischer

Why do you want to serve as a Board member, and what do you feel you will specifically contribute to the Board, if elected?

As a homeowner and a longtime resident of SCOV I have a stake in the safety and upkeep of our amenities with a view to preserving the value of my home and those of my neighbors.

I have lived in Sun City Oro Valley for the past 28 years and I feel the best way for me to insure that my community thrives and remains a community of active adults is to volunteer my time and expertise to the community through being a member of the Board of Directors. I believe that being in a position of influencing the implementation of rules and regulations to maintain and enhance our community and property values through the routine maintenance of our amenities and budget is paramount to our future survival in a competitive marketplace.

Having previously served on our BOD I understand the challenges we face every day in keeping our amenities and community updated and pleasing to our current residents and attractive to those who are considering SCOV as their future home.

What goals would you like to help the Board achieve during your term?

Homeowner Board members face ethical dilemmas every day and will encounter conflicts of interest between their ideas and those of other residents and Board members.

A Board member should help in creating goals each year, these goals need to focus on the big picture. These goals I feel are as follows:

1. Keep reviewing and refining plans to maintain our competitive edge with other communities of similar size.
2. The Board of Directors has an obligation to hold efficient, productive meetings and allow all homeowners to voice their opinions on all agenda items at each meeting.
3. To read and, if necessary, research any and all agenda items in order to be prepared for all meetings and also listening to other residents' opinions and ideas.

What do you perceive as the most important issue in SCOV and what is your opinion on that matter?

I believe the most important issue continues to be the maintenance and continued improvement of our buildings, common areas and amenities in order to attract new members.

As a homeowner and a longtime resident of SCOV I have a stake in seeing that all issues are being addressed by the Board on a continuing basis.

Tim Kelly

Why do you want to serve as a Board member, and what do you feel you will specifically contribute to the Board if elected?

Serving as a Board member is my way of giving back to SCOV. I will bring my education as an engineer and experience as a project manager, business leader, and marketer to the Board. I understand the importance of listening and understanding what our residents, staff, and advisors are saying.

What goals would you like to help the Board achieve during your term?

Advance SCOV's leadership as an active adult community by maintaining, improving, and enhancing our amenities in response to changing resident interests while working with our General Manager to limit increases in annual dues.

Some of our facilities are 30 years old and are nearing the end of their useful life. As an example, our Auditorium no longer adequately serves today's users. Maintenance costs can be reduced through reasonable refurbishment projects. We will find ways to improve our facilities without special assessments.

I will support our General Manager to bring operating and maintenance costs more in line with revenue for golf operations. Achieving this goal will reduce the support the golf operation receives from our homeowner dues. We have taken steps in this direction but can do more by employing best practices.

What do you perceive as the most important issue in SCOV and what is your opinion on that matter?

SCOV is a leader among active adult communities in southern Arizona. That success has been achieved in multiple ways. We must maintain our financial strength. The amenities, clubs, and activities all serve to strengthen and serve our community. For our individual homeowners, the quality of SCOV infrastructure has a direct impact on our home values. These and other issues require vigilance, and action as required, to maintain SCOV as a leader.

We must also understand what future homeowners want for their retirement homes and work to define our guidelines.

All residents will benefit directly through the increase of individual property values as we maintain our leadership position.

Darwin Thornton

Why do you want to serve as a Board member, and what do you feel you will specifically contribute to the board if elected?

I want to work to continue making our community a vibrant and desired place to live. My deliberative nature would serve well within this type of organization which is highlighted by structured assignments to various working committees. Having served as president of two clubs and co-leader of a third, I have worked with many of the SCOV staff and that experience will help me be an effective Board member. In addition

I have been preparing myself for Board service. I have been attending the BOD Study Sessions and Board Meetings for more than two years in order to gain knowledge in the workings of this Board and our community. During that time I also attended several different committee meetings. Additionally I have been in counsel with past and present Board members to be sure I understand the responsibilities of the position.

What goals would you like to help the Board achieve during your term?

To continue with the successes of this and previous Boards while keeping SCOV fiscally responsible. Our finances are in extremely good shape and the major decisions of the past few years, e.g. AFC remodel, Pro Shop, and the Restaurant upgrade are projects that were successfully accomplished without assuming debt. I would work to emulate that approach to future upgrades. I would also work to ensure that the Board seeks resident input on all major upgrades. I support the formation of committees to gather information and develop upgrades plans for the Desert Oasis and the Activity Center. Our community is being brought into the limelight of Arizona senior communities by the thoughtful and deliberate upgrading of our facilities in a fiscally responsible manner. I support this approach to projects.

What do you perceive as the most important issue in SCOV and what is your opinion on that matter?

SCOV has for many months enjoyed the positive resale of our homes. To continue this trend and to bring our community up to today's desirable housing styles and function, the Board will need to be careful about any changes that they might introduce to the residents. The Board needs to listen, as I have seen them do, to all sides of the issues. With the help of the Marketing Committee and the Future Housing Task Force, I know that we will continue to have positive statistics on our resales.

John Wilson

Why do you want to serve as a Board member, and what do you feel you will specifically contribute to the Board if elected?

I believe that SCOV is a well-run community and that past leadership has provided for forward-thinking that will enable SCOV to retain its stature as a premier retirement community. If I can be of help in making the decisions that guide that process in the coming years, I am happy to offer my services. I have had experience with leadership roles in a variety of organizations - academic (Biochemistry and Molecular Biology Department at Michigan State University), homeowners' associations (Ember Ridge here in SCOV, Timber Ridge at our home in Michigan), as well as various SCOV clubs (tennis, racquetball, Sundancers square dance). While I know that the SCOV Board would offer unique challenges, I would try to bring the same thoughtfulness and prudent decision-making that, I hope, would be said to characterize my previous efforts.

What goals would you like to help the Board achieve during your term?

Currently, the golf course and "The Views" restaurant represent two significant concerns in terms of fiscal status of our Association. I support any initiatives that would improve the profit-loss aspect of these operations, as well as make them more attractive to residents and nonresidents alike.

What do you perceive as the most important issue in SCOV and what is your opinion on that matter?

I think one of the most important challenges is discerning, and responding to, changing expectations of current or potential future residents. I have heard it in several different contexts, e.g., dance clubs with declining membership, decreasing numbers of golfers or tennis players. The explanations are likely complex, but I would urge that both the Board and larger community be receptive to recognizing and fostering new, or rejuvenating interest in existing, activities that might encourage participation by residents. A perfect example is provided by the Pickleball Club. Just a relatively short time ago, very few had heard of the sport. Now look. One of the largest clubs on campus. What is the next "pickleball" to be developed, keeping this an "active adult community?"

Cleaning Your Mat

Have you ever cleaned your mat that you use in class? A stinky mat doesn't have to be replaced if it can be cleaned. Yoga studios and websites offer a wide variety of spray-on mat cleaners, but you can also make your own antibacterial mat spray. Fill a spray bottle halfway with vinegar, add five drops of tea tree oil and fill to the top with water. Spray your mat and scrub it down with a nylon-bristled scrub brush, then allow it to dry in the sun. Yoga Journal recommends submerging heavily soiled mats in warm water with a few drops of detergent, rinsing them with clean water and rolling them in a towel to absorb the excess moisture before hanging them to dry. If your mat is starting to tear, pill or wear thin, it's time to buy a new one.

Special Note from the AFC

Orientation on how to use the gym equipment will be held every Thursday at 1 PM, so stop in and sign up. Contact Lonnie Davis, AFC Coordinator, to sign up or discuss questions or problems regarding the AFC.

Tuesday, February 14, the AFC pool and spa will be closed for cleaning and shock treatment, and it will reopen the following morning at the regular time.

Wednesday, February 15, the Desert Oasis Pool will be closed for cleaning and shock treatment and reopen the following morning at the regular time.

On January 9, 2014, our beautiful new AFC opened to raves and attention from the Oro Valley community. The Mayor and several Town Council members attended the official opening. Usage quickly increased from 91,943 in the old facility to 127,591 in 2015 and 116,739 through November, 2016.

This is great news: However, it also mandates that we emphasize civility and cooperate with each other. We need to do our share in the upkeep of the facilities, removing free-standing water in the locker rooms and properly wiping down the equipment.

At the end of December, our long-term monitor, Jane Ewing, retired after more than 15 years. She was always so pleasant and helpful. We will miss her, but wish her a healthy, restful retirement. She also left us a memento: the beautiful photo of a spectacular sunrise which is mounted behind the monitor's desk.

Second and Fourth Tue., 2 PM, WC3

Our community is very busy when it comes to changing things inside and outside of our homes. We average at least 20 submittals a month for changes to the exterior appearance. They range from walls and fences to landscaping and room additions. The Development Standards and Tract Declarations keep things looking good, following a standard that has well served the community. Drive or walk by your home and look at it as a stranger might. Are you proud of what you see, and does your landscaping benefit the views we have in SCOV? We plan to continue having a presence in the Activity Center on the second and fourth Wednesday mornings should you have any questions about our governing standards.

The Architectural Compliance Team will do an inspection of the exterior of your home to make sure all is in compliance if and when you expect to sell your property.

Consumer Referral - Vendor List

Here are directions for looking up the Vendor List on the website (formerly called Consumer Referral List): go to scovaz.com >Members >Member Services >Consumer Referral Vendor List >Read More.

Vendors may call or email Susanna Moran 825-9376 to inquire about applying to be on our Consumer Referral Vendor List.

Ballots, Initiatives and Forums

On Tuesday, February 21, a ballot will be either emailed or USPS mailed to all homeowners. If you do not receive the email by February 22, please call the Election Hotline, 520-917-8089, and leave your name, number and email address. A member of the Election Committee will get back with you. If you lose your email or want a paper ballot, call the Election Hotline.

You will be voting to fill two three-year positions on the Board of Directors. There are two initiatives on the ballot to change the Bylaws and Articles of Incorporation. Both initiatives are to require the community to vote before starting any type of business venture.

Live Forums will be Thursday, February 16, 6:30 PM, Auditorium and Friday, February 17, 9 AM, Auditorium. See "Coming Events" for information.

SCOV has historically had great participation in elections, but our participation in forums hasn't been as good. For that reason the Election Committee is trying a digital introduction where a question will be asked of the candidates by a member of the Election Committee. The video will be posted to our YouTube channel youtube.com/SCOVAZ. You will receive an email with links to the interviews as well as links in "This Week in SCOV." We hope that the availability and convenience of the digital forum will increase the level of participation in the election process.

February marks the sweetest holiday. Come in to find something special for your Valentine and enjoy the work of featured artists, Marie Gagnon (left), Darrell Martin (center) and Carmelita Martin (right).

Marie creates mostly functional ware, constructing and hand engraving the basic form. After the piece has dried and been fired, the glaze is applied by pouring, dipping or painting. A second firing completes the piece and it is ready for use.

Darrell started making jewelry because he "married a lady whose family were rockhounds." He cut gemstones they found, then made settings for the stones. His finely-woven silver chains are stunning whether alone or supporting one of his imaginative creations.

Carmelita began working with gourds by painting some she had grown, then learned traditional techniques like burning and carving designs onto the gourds. This led to additions of inlaid beads and other objects, creating unique and lovely items for the home.

Please come and learn about the new ordinance and how to avoid being ticketed when you get a phone call while driving.

Tuesday, February 14, 10:30-11:30 AM, Melissa Martin, Senator Jeff Flake's assistant, will meet with any SCOV resident in the Activity Center/Kachina Lounge. If there are issues or questions for which you'd like help from your Senator in Washington, just drop by.

Pause and Look

When the red flag on the mailbox goes down, we have reason to go outside to get our mail. Next time you are out there, pause and look at the box that holds your incoming mail. Could it use a fresh coat of paint? Now that the weather is cooler and most of our winter residents are here enjoying their winter homes, perhaps it's time to paint the pole, box, and flag. Check with the Consumer Referral Vendor List for names of people who will do it for you at a nominal cost if you don't wish to do the actual painting yourself.

Another item that needs mentioning, as it is the responsibility of the homeowner, is raised sidewalks. If the cement is raised ½" or more and could cause a walker to trip and fall, it needs to be repaired. More often than not, the raising is caused by a large root from a tree in the yard. Pause and look. Is yours OK?

The Properties Committee conducts inspections of all buildings, equipment and grounds and reports to the Board and General Manager the status of safety, maintenance and general conditions. Recommendations regarding preservation, maintenance or replacement and improvements are also made. The committee also advises the Board on distribution and/or redistribution of space allocations in Association facilities.

We are actively looking for residents with experience in facilities management, civil engineering, construction, surveying, industrial safety and related fields to serve as committee members or just to aid in inspection technical reviews.

Golf

Head Golf Professional - Kim Griggs

kgriggs@theviewsgolfclub.com 917-8053

Happy Valentines Day! Make sure to buy your "special someone" a nice gift before February 14. Come in our new Pro shop and check out our wide variety of merchandise. Pass holders receive 30% off and residents receive 15% off on everything except golf balls and sale items.

SCOV residents/guests, new residents and renters: come on out, and check out our beautiful 18-hole championship golf course. The views are breathtaking and the course is in excellent condition. Ask us about our memberships, our clubs and check out our fully stocked Pro Shop.

Bunkers: Do not enter bunkers from the high side as you will cave in the sand on the wall of the bunker. Please leave the rake handle outside the bunker and the head of the rake inside the bunker. Remember to rake the bunkers before you exit them. Leave the sand smooth for the next player!

Thank you for your cooperation.

Lessons are available from Kim Griggs, PGA, and Tim Lochner. One-half hour is $45, 45 minutes is $55. Please ask us about our series of lessons.

Finally, I want to remind everyone that athletic wear, tee shirts, tank tops, short shorts and blue jeans are not permitted when using the golf facilities (including the driving range and chipping area). Please remember these requirements when coming to use the practice facilities or inviting your friends out.

Superintendent - Michael Kropf

scvgolf@suncityorovalley.com 917-8063

The golf course continues to be in very good condition. The fairways, tees and greens are green and beautiful. Now that the roughs are completely dormant, the brown really outlines and enhances the green colors. However, the better the overall condition of the course, the more the little blemishes stand out. Most of these blemishes are the result of golfers not following basic golf etiquette.

One of the biggest problems continues to be ball marks on the greens. The grass on the greens is growing very slowly due to the cold temperatures, so the ball marks can't heal as quickly. Golfers really need to fix their ball marks, so the greens can continue putting smooth and true.

Another problem is divots. Golfers are confused with the proper repair procedure with divots in the fairways. In the winter when the weather is cool, the actual divot can be replaced back in the fairway. This will actually heal quicker than using divot mix, but if the divot was destroyed during impact, then divot mix should be used. However, in the summer when the weather is hot, the divot mix is the best option because the Bermuda grass will fill the divot quickly.

Please concentrate on following proper golfing etiquette by fixing your own ballmark, as well as replacing or fixing divots on tees and fairways, and properly raking traps. By following these basic rules the golf course can be in great condition for everybody during the peak season.

Golf Advisory

Chair Tim Kelley 734-645-8199

First Wed., 2 PM, WC3

I am pleased to report that all the women's and men's golf clubs are growing. The clubs offer weekly events and tournaments that help build market share in a competitive golf market. Recent statistics indicate that our residents and the public are playing more rounds.

These increases can be attributed to several factors (course design, location, multiple tee boxes and others), and indicate that our programs and efforts are effective. The turf conditions of The Views are the best. Many thanks to Mike Kropf and the whole crew. Pro Shop staff and rangers are also important to succeed.

The Golf Advisory Committee is an important communication link that provides all residents an opportunity to contribute towards improving the golf operation. The Marketing Committee strives to establish name recognition in the larger golf market in the Tucson area.

Together, working in the same direction, we are succeeding. Thank you all.

The Views Restaurant

Food & Beverage Director - Aalt Brouwer

abrouwer@suncityorovalley.com 917-8074

Over the last two months there has been a lot of movement and changes happening in The Views Restaurant. Within these changes, we have been focusing on quality of food and service as well as changing up some of the marketing and promotional materials we send out through the Tipster. One of my main focuses is on happy hour, as the specials were confusing for both the staff and our clientele. We will be offering a new happy hour and a slightly modified dinner menu to accompany it. The new happy hour is simple to remember and consistent every day of the week. Moving forward we will offer $2 Domestic Drafts, $3 House Wine (Chardonnay or Cabernet), and $4 Cocktail of the Day as well as half price-appetizers.

In addition to our new happy hour promotions, we are pleased to announce our new combined Breakfast and Lunch (Brunch) menu which is served daily from 7 AM to 2 PM. Our goal is to allow anyone who wants breakfast at lunch time to get it seven days a week as opposed to just on weekends, as well as streamline the menu to be more efficient out of the kitchen.

I am so pleased at the small successes we have achieved over the short time I have been here and honored that you have allowed me to treat your restaurant as my own. I appreciate all the support over the last two months, and I look forward to many more positive changes to come.

John Miller, Bill Snead and Leanne McClurg Cambric at clay printing workshop.

After a very full orientation class to start off the New Year, we are enjoying new members as we diligently work to integrate them into the club.

Thanks to the SCOV grounds crew, the poles are set for the totem project, and our members are creating new pieces on a regular basis. We are on track to deliver the installation before the end of the season. Watch for word on a formal unveiling and dedication.

A full class schedule has been created for members thanks to volunteer teachers from our own ranks.

In January we were treated to a lecture, demonstration and clay printing class by accomplished visiting ceramic artist Leanne McClurg Cambric, whose proud mother, Linda Powell, is an SCOV resident. It has been a great start to what we expect to be another productive year.

Our studio is displaying our works for an unthemed show in the Activity Center this month. Please come over and peruse the quality and creativity of our talented SCOV artists. We work in all media, so the pieces will vary greatly. Our club members paint each Wednesday in a relaxed but fervent environment. We discuss art world news, local art events and critique submitted artwork in a constructive manner. If you have any interest in painting, check us out Wednesday mornings in the Art Studio.

The photo shows some of the more than 275 residents and guests who enjoyed the model train layout during one of the recent open houses. The layout is partially completed, with work continuing by members of the Modelers Club who are interested in building scenery with track planning and are operating model trains. The room also invites members to build model airplanes, ships and many other models of interest to the member.

All SCOV residents are welcome at our monthly meetings and to the use of the Modelers Room. On any day, if the lights are on and someone is in the room, stop in. At our meetings, you will see what we are about, and you may enjoy a cup of coffee and a sweet roll. From time to time, we schedule field trips of interest to modelers.

Club members Dave Thompson, Bob Cratty, Jan Cratty, Harland Goertz, Allan Mashburn and Nelson Tilden spent many hours at Coronado School lecturing 5th and 7th grades on astronomy and using their telescopes. Check our website for upcoming star parties.

Many of us find reasons to reflect on the year just ended and perhaps resolve to make changes or improvements in ourselves or even make a difference, if we can, in the world around us. Lynne Knight provides a glimmer of hopefulness at the coming of 2017 in "Year's End. Year's Beginning."

"The wrens in the coast live oaks wait for the crows to stop squawking, then swoop for insects, singing... My heart has seemed so heavy, but it lifts as the wrens hold still like notes on a staff. Light pierces a cloud and scatters in shards. The ceasefire might hold. Bulldozers might stop opening the earth for more blood to be shed in the ruins. I don't know what more to tell you. Try to keep your heart open as the door a stranded motorist walks through, ghostlike with snow from the blizzard, grateful for being in time."

Folk Dance Club of SCOV

Harvey Gardner 308-5616 savear@cs.com

Fri., 10-11:30 AM, AFC/Studio 2

Folk dancing is more fun than a treadmill and excellent exercise for brain, balance, muscle and mood. For most dances we hold hands in a circle performing non-gymnastic steps to the fascinating musical strains and rhythms of diverse cultures, including the USA. No partner or prior experience needed. A typical session consists of 13 folk dances with instructions given for all but the easiest ones. Weekly mailings contain YouTube links to all dances in the upcoming club meeting. Videos of us may be seen via a Google search on "Folk Dance SCOV YouTube."

Mon., 3 PM, Thu., 1:30 PM, AFC/Studio

The SCOV Club Fair this year is Friday February 3, 1-3 PM. Please plan on stopping by the Pilates Club booth to see why, 40 years after his death, the Joseph Pilates system of exercises has never been in such high demand. Fortunately, SCOV offers the Joseph Pilates classes twice per week. People ask "can the benefits of this Pilates method, which comes from the strengthening and stretching exercises we do, really develop the body's core (abdomen and back muscles), increase spine mobility and build flexibility?" The answer is "yes," and the additional benefits you'll see from taking our group mat classes will also include better balance, more muscle tone and increased stamina. Not only do we have experienced instructors, the cost is only $8/class and annual club dues are $20 pp. Please stop by and watch one of our classes. Call Mary with questions.

Most of us think of Tai Chi as a way to prevent falls, improve breathing, and reduce stress, but it is so much more. Research by Tufts University School of Medicine credits Tai Chi with decreased pain, improved sleep and mood, and better quality of life.

In our classes we not only enjoy learning Tai Chi form, we also improve our balance, flexibility and strength and even learn meditation skills. Our instructors, Jose Hernandez-Rivera and Donna Drazenovich, stress the use of Tai Chi in daily life.

Our current class session has already begun, but those with previous Tai Chi experience may still be able to join. Another class session will begin in March. Please contact Gail Barr for details.

We meet year-round starting from the Vistoso Community Church parking lot at 1200 E. Rancho Vistoso Blvd. (behind the Fire Station) to enjoy an unparalleled combination of amazing desert vistas and ever improving infrastructure of bike lanes and dedicated paths. New riders are always welcome.

A monthly schedule of our 20-60 mile rides is available on our website. Our well-tested loop routes support a wide-variety of abilities and usually include a mid-ride coffee stop. We also offer a mountain bike option on Wednesdays, which most often heads out into the Tortolita rangelands.

Tuesday morning our WOW (Women on Wheels) group takes somewhat shorter rides nearer to SCOV. In addition, we hold a number of social events each season.

Vistoso Cyclists partner Wheels for Kids: Donate your seldom-used, tax-deductible bicycle to Wheels for Kids. We refurbish such bikes and distribute them to kids and teens, thus giving youth in need the freedom, fun, and fitness that results from cycling. See www.azwfk.org to arrange for a drop-off or pickup. Your cash donations are also tax-deductible.
