Building Trust Through Facts, Not Rumors

What makes our HOA community strong is simple: neighbors treating each other with respect, staying open with communication and working together in good faith.

Questions and concerns are normal in any community. What matters most is how we handle them. When we share accurate information and ask questions directly, we build understanding and avoid unnecessary confusion. When we rely on assumptions or secondhand information, small gaps can quickly turn into larger misunderstandings.

How Rumors Start

Rumors often begin when someone hears partial information or sees something without full context. It's natural to try to make sense of what we don't fully understand. A casual conversation can be repeated and gradually takes on the appearance of fact, even when key details are missing or incorrect. Taking a moment to verify information with an official source can often stop that process before it spreads.

Why It Matters

Trust is the foundation of a healthy community. When misinformation spreads, it can lead to unnecessary worry, frustration, or doubt and may cause neighbors to question decisions or intentions without the full picture.

Board members are fellow homeowners who volunteer their time to support the community. They welcome questions and feedback, but inaccurate or incomplete information can make their work more difficult and, at times, discouraging.

Rumors can also magnify small issues, turning routine matters into larger concerns. This can lead to strained conversations, reduced cooperation and less productive meetings where facts get lost.

Staying Informed

Concerns about finances, projects or community decisions can grow quickly when information isn't clear or complete. Staying grounded in verified updates helps everyone make better informed judgments and maintain confidence in the community's direction.

The SCOV Board and management team share updates through This Week In SCOV, the SCOV website, email communications, Board Meetings, and Board Chats. These remain the most reliable sources for accurate and timely information.

If something you hear raises concern, checking an official source first, or asking a clarifying question, can often prevent misunderstandings from spreading further.

Before sharing, it helps to pause and ask:

- Is this confirmed?
- Is it from an official source?
- Do I have the full context?
- Could this unintentionally create concern?

Working Together

Strong communities aren't built on everyone always agreeing. They're built on neighbors staying respectful, asking questions and listening to one another.

When we choose facts over assumptions and communicate with care, we help maintain a community that is welcoming, stable and easier for everyone to enjoy day to day.

Civility Is Everyone's Responsibility

One of the greatest strengths of Sun City Oro Valley is the passion our residents have for this community. People care deeply about where they live and that passion often leads to thoughtful discussions about our future. While we may not always agree on every issue, we should all be able to agree on one thing - treating one another with respect.

Civility does not mean avoiding difficult conversations

The Birds of Sun City Oro Valley

By Mariana Corella

While the SCOV "snowbirds" are out of town for the season, there are plenty of birds still here loving the warm weather. Here are some species to keep an eye out for when you are out and about in the community.

First of all, Arizona is full of iconic native birds. The Gambel's Quail is only found in the southwest region of the United States of America and northwestern Mexico. They are instantly recognized by the beautiful topknot on the top of both male and females' heads. These little plump birds are more commonly found running around the desert floor.

The illustrious hummingbirds are the favorite of many residents of SCOV. The Anna's Hummingbird is a very common hummingbird to spot in your neighborhood throughout summertime. They do not migrate often, so they are in Arizona all year round. These tiny birds flutter their little wings so quickly it seems like they're hovering above the brightly colored flowers they drink nectar from.

Flying high above Rancho Vistoso Boulevard, you can see the Red-tailed Hawk which are the most common species of hawks and one of the largest birds in North America.

Waterbirds are common to see around the ponds in the golf course. Cormorants and ducks are frequently spotted there. If you are lucky, you may even spot a Great Blue Heron fishing for food with their long beaks and graceful legs.

To learn more about the species of birds found around SCOV, visit our birder club's website: <https://scovbirding.wixsite.com/birdersgroup> or withholding differing opinions. Healthy discussion is an important part of any thriving community. Civility means expressing those opinions in a way that is respectful, constructive and focused on the issue, not the individual.

Whether you are attending a Board meeting, serving on a committee, sending an email, posting on social media or simply talking with a neighbor, your words matter. Personal attacks, accusations, inflammatory language and spreading unverified information rarely solve problems. More often, they create division, discourage volunteers and make it harder to accomplish the work that benefits everyone.

Our Board members are volunteers who dedicate countless hours to serving the community. Likewise, our employees come to work each day committed to providing quality service to our residents. They deserve to be treated with the same courtesy and professionalism that we all expect in return.

If you are concerned, I encourage you to ask questions, seek clarification and utilize the many avenues available to communicate with management and the Board. Open dialogue is always welcome when it is conducted respectfully.

As we move forward together, let us remember that every resident shares a common goal: preserving and improving the community you all chose to call home. A simple act of kindness, patience or respect can have a lasting impact on a conversation and on our community as a whole.

Civility is not about agreeing with one another. It is about recognizing that even when opinions differ, every person deserves to be treated with dignity and respect. By choosing respectful communication, we strengthen our relationships, foster productive discussions and help ensure that Sun City Oro Valley remains the welcoming community we all value.

Copper Center Update

Theda Ellis, 302-388-9798, tellisscov@gmail.com

Why is the Copper Center Important?

Returning to SCOV in time for the Fourth of July concert reminded me once again why I love living here. It was an afternoon that captures the spirit of our community; neighbors gathering to celebrate our country, enjoy great music and spend time together. It was SCOV at its best.

One of the things I value most about our community is that there is no single "right" way to enjoy retirement. Some residents spend their days on the golf course or at the pool. Others, like me, enjoy traveling in an RV. Many find purpose, friendship and creativity in our clubs. Every one of those interests contributes to making SCOV the vibrant community it is.

As a community, we have made significant investments in many of our amenities. We've upgraded and maintained the AFC, our pools and the golf course, and we've devoted considerable attention to the restaurant. Those investments matter. At the same time, another part of our community has quietly continued to outgrow its space.

Our artisan clubs, including the Wood Shop, Thimbelenas, Stained & Fused Glass and the Wood Carvers, have welcomed increasing interest from new residents, yet some are now forced to limit participation because they simply don't have enough room. This isn't a new challenge. We recognized the need in 2018 when the first Artisan Center Task Force began studying ways to provide additional space.

That need was one of the reasons SCOV purchased Copper Center. While progress has taken longer than any of us anticipated, the purpose has remained the same: to create space that allows more residents to participate and more clubs to thrive.

I've heard some residents say that the Copper Center will benefit only a handful of people. Rather than speculate, we worked with the office to compile the membership lists for the clubs that will directly benefit from the project. After removing duplicate memberships, we found 1,139 individual residents—almost 33 percent of our residents. That's one out of every 3 residents who would benefit directly. That includes the additional space in the Artisans Center that will be created for the Carvers and expansion opportunities for the Wood Shop, Gift Shop, Clay Club, and Library.

To me, Copper Center has never been just about a building. It's about investing in the people who make this community special. As our interests evolve and new residents arrive with different talents and passions, I believe it's important that SCOV continues to provide opportunities for all of us. That's one of the ways we ensure our community remains as vibrant tomorrow as it is today.

Happiness Happens Month

Happiness Happens Month is a global celebration held every August, dedicated to recognizing, appreciating and celebrating everyday joy. Sometimes, the way to happiness is to get lost in a book. Reduce your stress, expand your mind, and unlock a happier version of you with every single page. Reading provides a quick getaway. Open a cover and let the world fade. Every book is a ticket to somewhere new, a space to escape, heal and rediscover joy. Whether you are seeking a quiet moment or a grand adventure, the perfect story is a proven tool to unwind and spark lasting happiness.

Please help spread joy and happiness this month by sharing your favorite happy, feel-good book from the SCOV Library. It's simple to do, just stop by the Library with a smile and write the title and author of your happy book on our list and that's it. Your book cover will be displayed on the Library bulletin board for others to see and shelved on the end caps for patrons to try. I am looking forward to seeing all the smiles and happy book suggestions this month. Happy reading!

Recreation and Fitness- Lonnie Davis

Lonnie Davis ldavis@suncityorovalley.com 520-917-8073

What is Functional Fitness?

Functional Fitness is one of the most recent training trends to hit the gym scene and it has exploded in popularity due to the results that it produces. Functional Fitness is designed to prepare your body for everyday living. It focuses on compound movements that force you to engage all of your core muscles and your stabilizer muscles, many of which are not stimulated during traditional weight training. Beginning a functional training program, or even incorporating a few days of functional training into your current workout schedule will save you a lot of time, pain and medical bills in the future and it will make your life easier to live.

Special Note from the AFC:

Orientation on how to use the gym equipment is held Thursday, 1 pm, so stop in and sign up. Classes are limited. Contact Lonnie Davis, AFC Coordinator, to discuss questions or problems with the AFC. AFC and Desert Oasis hours of operation on page 2.

Architectural Inspection Group

Lisa Sandrock 520-917-8072 lsandrock@suncityorovalley.com
Next meeting is September 24, 2 pm, WC1

We often get questions about how to tell if your side and back walls are on your property, your neighbor's or HOA property, or shared. In Sun City two simple indicators might help. At the corner of your lot, there might be a piece of rebar in the ground, assuming no one removed it over the years. The other indicator you can look for is a small metal disk attached to the top of the masonry walls. The owner of the wall can be determined by the location of the disk on the wall.

While these are quick indicators of where your property boundaries might be, the only sure way to accurately determine your property boundaries is to have the property surveyed. While there is some expense involved in having a professional surveyor come out to do this, it can quickly resolve issues of who is responsible for painting a fence, maintaining a wall, or whether the wall is a party wall and jointly owned by you and your neighbor or Sun City.

If any owner is proposing to modify, make additions, or build a wall on their property, they must obtain prior written approval from the ARC and any neighbors directly affected by those changes. Having a survey done is a critical step before seeking the required approvals or any work starts. Please see Master Declaration 4.15 for more details regarding party walls.

Architectural Review Committee

Board Member and Co-chair Dave Olson
Co-chair David Holleman, dlholleman@gmail.com
Meetings Second and Fourth Tue, 2 pm

The home expansion process (ARC-006) is a bit complicated, but not difficult.

Expansions begin with completing the online concept application under Member Services > For Your Home > Lot Modification. The ARC will meet with you to review the project idea in order to be sure that the design meets the development standards, and your project will be reviewed by the entire committee at the following ARC meeting.

Once the concept is approved, you will be asked to submit a final application which will include complete details such as architectural drawings, a materials list and permits. Letters outlining the project will also be sent to neighbors with a view of the proposed expansion for comment.

The final application will be reviewed onsite and at the following ARC meeting where the project should receive approval and permission to begin.

Please contact Katy Mosier 520-917-8058 or any ARC member with questions; we are happy to help.

Finance-Budget

Pati Olson, 206-890-4441, PatiOlson@yahoo.com

The 2026-2027 budget process began in the Finance and Budget Committee in March, involving reviewing monthly and year-to-date figures for fiscal year 2025-2026, and forecasts for this new fiscal year, resulting in three drafts. Several board members regularly attend our two-hour monthly meetings to get a better picture of the numerous financial reports and the discussions within the committee. SCOV is experiencing many of the same increases in costs that we face: insurance, wages, fuel, food and maintenance/construction. Each line item for every department is reviewed in detail, to see where costs can be cut, without reducing the quality of services and activities we enjoy in our community. Income and expenditures for the reserve funds (mainly operating, capital, contingency and reserve) are reviewed and projected. The small increase in our HOA dues meets the needs of the new fiscal year and the future needs of the reserve fund. For $7.85/day, we have a wealth of amenities, and most importantly a great community.

Be sure to stop by the Gift Shop to enjoy the many types of paintings on display. Painting has always been more than pigment on a surface, it's one of humanity's oldest languages. Art is a way to record memory, express emotion, and shape how we see the world. What makes painting endlessly fascinating is the balance between skill and spontaneity.

Every brushstroke carries intention. A painter doesn't just depict a scene; they translate feeling into form. A desert sunrise becomes a meditation on hope. A portrait becomes a study of identity. Even the simplest abstract shapes can reveal the rhythm of a mind. You don't need formal training or expensive tools, just curiosity and the willingness to experiment. Whether acrylic on canvas, splashing watercolor across paper, or creating multi-media images, painting is an open invitation.

Government Affairs

Second Wed, 1 pm, WC1
www.suncityorovalley.com/committees/government-affairs

The government affairs committee had a busy spring sponsoring events for the residents. Fall events continue with Rex Scott (Pima County Supervisor - District 1) on Thursday, September 17. Pima County provides public health and community services, county sheriff, county courts/jail system, environmental health, waste management, elections, property assessment and taxes, animal control, regional transportation and regional infrastructure and trails. Pima County coordinates efforts with Oro Valley as needed. We will be soliciting questions as we get closer to the event. The committee is also sponsoring Golder Ranch Fire District Thursday, October 22, for Fire Prevention Month and Coffee with a Cop (Oro Valley Police Department) in November. Stay cool and safe this summer.

Loan Room - Community Assistance

Chair Gay Russell, Loan Room Carolyn Carson Loan Room hours Tue, Thu, 8-9 am www.suncityorovalley.com/members/services/loan-room

Our community has a special resource called The Loan Room, located next to the Golf Shop/Barn. We are open Tuesdays and Thursdays, 8-9 am. While July is a quieter month, we encourage all SCOV residents and renters to plan ahead, especially when the snowbirds return. Browse our inventory in the online catalog on the SCOV website. Medical equipment may be borrowed for up to two months; all other items for up to two weeks. Popular items go quickly around holidays, so reserve early, up to two months in advance.

Bring your SCOV card when picking up items, and clean all borrowed items before returning them.

Proceeds from the SCOV Community Aluminum Cans Recycling Program help support our inventory and services. On-site donations are always welcome. Drop your cans in the blue Recycling Containers located in front of the Activity Center and at other locations throughout SCOV.

We look forward to seeing you.

Posse

David Ilse Chair 952-451-3220 dvdilse@gmail.com
Monthly meetings first Tue except May-Oct
www.suncityorovalley.com/committees/posse

The Posse needs your help. Summer/fall finds quite a few volunteers traveling or spending time at their winter homes. All three of our squads are having trouble completely filling the two-week duty shift. It is important that each night a two-person team tours the entire community. Per the OVPD, these are the times when outsiders may come to SCOV to find unoccupied homes vulnerable to access.

Our reason for checking homes is to keep javelinas, rats and snakes out of open garages, which can be a big, messy problem; however, the bigger issue is potential home access to steal homeowner possessions.

If you would like to volunteer, go to the SCOV website, select Committees, scroll down past the calendar and select Posse and fill out an application. If you have questions or need a riding partner, contact Barb McNeill, Squad C Leader, bjmac68@gmail.com or 520-825-0677, no text.

Properties

Shorty Parson 520-275-8114 darrellparson109@gmail.com

The properties committee continues to move forward with Chalk Creek Wash, with the bid awarded and work to start soon. The committee reviewed the final April properties inspection with most of the items resolved by the maintenance group. The committee was briefed on the replacement of the patio at Catalina Vista using pavers. A new topic was the replacement of some windows or what can be done to reduce the heat load in some areas and a camera is being bought to measure the heat coming through the windows and around them. The next meeting will be Thursday, August 20, 9 am, WC1, available on Zoom.

Director of Golf - Rick Price

rprice@theviewsgolfclub.com 520-917-8086

During the inclement weather of the monsoon season this month, we want to remind you to be safe and use your best judgment while playing golf. Use the following suggestions to keep safe when heading out on the course during this time: Check the forecast and check it often, and download a reliable radar app. If you hear thunder or see lightning, we recommend leaving the course or seeking shelter immediately if you are not able to get off the golf course in a timely manner.

Overseeding is right around the corner, and the course is scheduled to be closed from Monday, September 21 to Sunday, October 11. When we reopen on Monday, October 12, it will be cart path only until Friday, October 30. The Pro Shop will be open for limited hours during overseeding, and the driving range will be open for hitting off mats.

If you have been thinking about improving your game, we invite you to attend one of our weekly clinics on Tuesdays at 7 am covering the full swing and or the short game. For further help take a private lesson with one of our professional staff. Call the Pro Shop at 520-825-3110

Director of Golf Maintenance - Michael Kropf

[mkropf@suncityorovalley.com](mailto:m kropf@suncityorovalley.com) 520-917-8063

During the months of June and July a lot of effort was put into the golf course to promote growth of bermudagrass in fairways, tees, and greens following transition from the winter overseed. The maintenance staff aerified, top-dressed and verticut all these areas. The benefits will be realized during the months of July, August, and September. The monsoons bring a higher level of humidity, and occasional rain that really encourages the bermudagrass to begin growing quickly. The irrigation water is also reduced, which will allow the playing conditions to improve. All of the frustrations from the fairways being thin with some wet areas in June will be reduced and the golf course will be in much better condition for the rest of the summer.

This year the summer maintenance schedule of aerifica-tion and verticutting of greens also includes verticutting the fairways in the month of August. Every year the fairways are verticut two directions as part of normal maintenance to manage organic matter and to start thinning the turf canopy for the upcoming overseed. The process really creates a mess of grass clippings in the fairways that need to be blown and vacuumed to clean up in between groups of golfers. Hopefully, including this process on the planned maintenance schedule will remind golfers of what is happening and minimize the surprise when they get on the golf course.

The fairways will be in much better condition in August heading into the next overseed in September.

Always Ready

It's August and the few, the brave, and the hardy are playing every Thursday. The first Thursday of the month is a regular league play game, with the remaining Thursdays dedicated to a skins game. As I have said before, we tend to like the skins game because, even if you are having a bad day, you still have a chance to win a skin. We all have a few more weeks to play before the course closes for over-seeding. Then a whole new season begins on the 1st of October. If you are new to SCOV and want to play but are not sure of your skill level, the 9-hole league is perfect. You will meet 100+ guys who are the same.

The Foundation SCOV is a tax-exempt charitable organization helping to make SCOV a vibrant, caring and supportive place to live by financially supporting health, cultural, recreational, educational and other charitable needs. Your charitable donations are gratefully accepted year-round.

Foundation SCOV was pleased to support the SCOV Woodworking Club with a grant to purchase a new lathe, replacing their 20-year-old model. In appreciation, John Njaa of the Woodworking Club has generously offered to create small recognition plaques for their lathe and for future Foundation SCOV grant recipients.

If your club received a Foundation grant for physical equipment within the past two years, please contact Mike LaBarbera at 812-431-7427 so we can add a plaque to your equipment.

These plaques are affixed to items purchased with Foundation grants, a reminder that these items were made possible through the generosity of our donors. Each plaque recognizes the partnership between Foundation SCOV and the clubs and organizations it supports while celebrating the community spirit and charitable giving that enrich the lives of SCOV residents.

SCOV clubs are welcome to submit grant requests to the Foundation or have a Foundation board member speak at a club meeting. Application instructions are on the website FoundationSCOV.org.

Placing a bisqueware piece in the kiln

During the process of creating a finished pottery piece, the artist presents the piece for two kiln firings. For the first firing, the greenware piece is placed in the low fire kiln where it is fired at 1914 degrees Fahrenheit. This firing takes approximately two days. The piece has then progressed from greenware to bisqueware. Next, after glazing the piece, the artist submits it for high fire at 2185 degrees Fahrenheit. This firing takes approximately two days. This finished piece is then called glaze ware or pottery ware. The clay studios have five kilns, two in the Pottery Studio and three in the Glaze Studio. Eleven club volunteer members operate the kilns. They are Renee Ford, Joan Kelly, Melanie Stinson, Pam Doge, Bob Arms, Mimi Werner, Kathy Minck, Joanne Wheeler, Linda Block, Elise Collin and Nan Smalley. The kilns are owned and maintained by the SCOV HOA.

Our sculpture pieces in the window and the showcase in Catalina Vista and the Library are full of pieces for your viewing pleasure. Coni Arseneau completed the relief sculpture in the picture. The prickly pear was made of sculpey clay with mesh wire on the inside to assist with the structure. Coni used metallic acrylic paint on the cactus pads and flowers. She used bronze acrylic ink to wash the pads to highlight the needles on the cactus. The background behind the cactus is the skeleton of a prickly pear pad which was spraypainted copper. The cactus sits on a piece of an Ocotillo cactus skeleton which she wrapped with fine copper wire. Copper is used throughout the sculpture.

Thank you board members Carol Myers, Sue Garcia, Lesley Monroe, Kathy Foster and Linda Wickline for your hard work in securing the purchase, rearranging the sewing room, moving out equipment to be stored for future use in the Copper Center, and being on-sight during installation of the new longarm quilting machine. August offers a slower pace in the sewing room, but Casa members are staying busy. Queen sized sheets are cut down and elastic is added to create twin sized sheets for More than a Bed.

Along with that, a few savvy sewers use fleece left over from other projects to create quilts.

The quilt pictured below is currently in the gift shop and is available just in case you know a dog lover who is looking for something to keep them cozy when the AC is set too low. When you walk through the artisan center, stop to look at the display window to see samples of our work.

Wed, 1-3 pm, ART/Sewing

Cheer Bear ripples to Sequim Washington as Linda Short's niece and nephew finish a batch of bears to share. GOOD JOB!

We are still embroidering faces, sewing bodies, stuffing them with 'love' and filling our shelves for the next set to march out to their new families. We have a good number of smiling faces in the sewing room these summer months. The air conditioning is good and allows us to cool down as we share stories.

We are looking forward to our winter friends returning. We hope all are enjoying a great summer and are ready to rejoin our festivities in the fall.

As always, Cheer Bears welcome donations of flannel and polyfil to keep the production of our cuddly cuties marching on. Thank you to all who donate from their stashes and time to keep these bears making children "Beary" happy.

Can you snip fabric into little pieces with scissors? If so, we can use your help creating soft, comfy pet bed pillows from cotton fabric scraps and polyester fiberfill for our furry little friends at the Humane Society of Southern Arizona in Tucson. They all need an extra touch of kindness while patiently waiting for adoption. If you have large pieces of washable cotton fabric that we could use for the pillowcases, we encourage you to donate them to us. We invite you to join us for a laid-back afternoon. Hope to see you there. Call Jan with any questions.

The Tapestry Hooking and Fiber Arts group meets on Tuesday mornings in the Sewing Room. If you are interested in our group, stop by the Sewing Room on Tuesday mornings 9-11 am.

If you are interested in learning rug hooking, we provide materials and instructions to those interested in learning the art of hooking.

Cindy Cozzi recently finished the latch hook pillow that is featured in the picture. Latch hooking was very popular in the 1970's and early 80's. The latch hook (as seen in the picture) is used in a gridded mesh canvas to pull and knot a 2-2½ inch piece of cut yarn. This process creates a thick and textured pile. Latch hooking is good for creating rugs, pillows and wall hangings. Latch hooking and traditional rug hooking differ in the type of hook, backing material, hooking material and technique.

Scrapology Class

Is it getting too hot? Cool off in our air conditioned studio to learn how easy it is to create fused glass or stained glass pieces. We're still offering classes in the summer. Visit our club website for details. Stained Glass art is the term given to art created by cutting out pieces from stained glass sheets and soldering them together using either lead came or copper foil. Stained glass art can be many sizes and designs, from the smallest suncatchers to large windows.

Fused Glass art refers to pieces of glass that are melted or "fused" together in a glass kiln. Glass fusing can create Christmas ornaments, jewelry, dishes and bowls, vases and glass paintings. Visit our studio located in the Artisan Center, the Gift shop or the Activity Center to view some of the wonderful stained and fused glass creations made by our talented members.

 Open carving Tue, 1 pm-4 pm; Thu, 9 am-Noon, Sat, 9 am-Noon

There are many choices that a carver has to make when purchasing hand tools used to complete your carvings. Tools available for purchase are identified as mini, palm, full size and mallet designs. Selection of the proper tool(s) will depend upon the type and size of the carvings you wish to make. All four of these tool designs are available in chisels, veiners and of course gouges.

In last month's Tipster article, I wrote about tool design, resharpener length and manufacturers. I strongly suggest that you, as a carver, consider all of the info I have provided to date in the selection of tools for your projects, be they large or small.

If you stop in and visit our carvers during the times listed above, you will have an opportunity to get the feel of the tools we use to do what we do, making wood chips.

Cribbage Board

August has arrived and the woodshop has changed its hours to be open Monday through Friday, 10 am-2 pm. I am happy to say that the new time has made it easier to fill the monitor positions, and we thank the men and women who have volunteered to keep the shop open regularly. We ask that all monitors check the sign-up list and volunteer for the open slots.

For August, we will highlight a cribbage board that was created by John Petersen. The use of different woods and their variation in color helps to highlight both the playing and storage areas of the game and enhances the looks of the game board. The top and bottom sections swivel open which allows the playing pieces and cards to be stored inside the game board. Thank you, John, for allowing us to highlight your creation.

Worldwide, August's full moon has many names. "Harvest Moon" is used by the Dakota and in China, while "Sturgeon Moon" refers to the abundance of lake sturgeon in late summer's North American waters. "Grain Moon" is Anglo-Saxon, while "(Green) Corn Moon" is used by the Algonquin and Ojibwe tribes, and is found in many Medieval English records. August 27's full moon is notable because it will coincide with a partial 93% lunar eclipse, also known as a "Blood Moon," marking the first lunar eclipse of 2026.

Mon, 10 am-Noon, Zoom

Counting up the years is just arithmetic, something Poets Corner member John Padgett doesn't question. What he won't accept is any intrusion that impedes the way he'd like to spend his time. So he fights until he beats the cold that tried to knock him down. His facility with words and sense of humor engages any reader of this poem:

"Don't Let the Old Man In

Is a good mantra for me
With over 360 seasons

But, he crept in through a gap
In my barriers called a "cold"

Coughs, sneezes and fatigue
Especially fatigue when he got in

He took the roster of my goals
Tossed them on the floor

He crumpled my to do list
Threw it out the door

He said that at my age
It's OK to sleep the day away

So he stayed here while
I slept with cold-fighting drugs

When my strength returned
I pushed him out

Once more"

Newcomers are welcome to join us on Zoom.

Wed, 9-10:30 am, AC/Navajo

Please note the Conscious Aging Club is taking a break from its regular schedule for the month of August.
(We'll be back with a new book study in September.)

Conscious aging is about the inner work of reorienting ourselves as we turn from our roles we assumed while managing careers and tending families, to turning inward and cultivating a deeper awareness of who we are now. Our goal is to discover how to face the known and unknown challenges of aging. With the help of our community, we are pondering the questions: Who am I? What are my values? What do I believe? What matters most to me?

This inner work is supported by mindful movement such as qigong, guided meditation and book study that draws from psychology, sociology, metaphysics, philosophy and meditation. Conscious aging is about accepting who we are now. Our meetings consist of a short period of easy mindful movement, followed by guided meditation and discussion. Please contact Phyllis for information or email the club.

Arizona's warm months bring more than sunshine, they bring snakes, and our dog parks are no exception. Rattlesnakes often seek shelter near shaded entrances, brush and rock borders, exactly where dogs love to sniff.

Recently, Bob Swedo and his Golden Retriever Brody had a close call when they found a snake at the entrance to the SCOV large dog park. The group called 311 and help arrived promptly to safely handle it. A great reminder that staying alert makes all the difference.

Prevention is your best defense. Fido's Friends offers members snake aversion training each spring, and teaches dogs to recognize and avoid snakes by sight, sound and scent. Snake and toad aversion training is fee-based. Membership grants access to the K9 Korral Dog Park on Del Webb Blvd where members meet to let dogs play off-leash. Membership is $10 per year. Are you a golfer? Are you twisting on drives, squatting and leaning over to pick up balls? Golf movements are required and repeated. The results can be overused, weak muscles and imbalances affecting legs, hips, arms, shoulders and back. Over 60? Your game is probably affected with shorter, less accurate drives. Stamina decreases and muscle strains, pulls and tears occur. For years, elite golfers (Tiger Woods, etc.) have turned to Pilates, an essential training tool to stay balanced and improve performance. Like golf shots, Pilates is based on movement from the body's center or core (trunk, shoulders, abdomen, pelvis). As you strengthen your core, hip rotation improves your range of motion and back stability. Other results? Powerful, more accurate golf shots and a symmetrically muscled, flexible, strong body. Pilates is a full body exercise with very little joint strain. Call Mary or come by and watch a class.

Hummingbird species peak in the summer.

There is no doubt that interest in birding has mushroomed not just among seniors but the entire population. This was initially fueled by the pandemic when folks were looking for a safe outdoor hobby. Also, the ability to ID bird songs in the free Merlin app has made it much easier to associate birds with their songs. In 2024 alone, 7.5 million users have added Merlin to their smartphones making birding fun for all. Recent surveys indicate that 16% of the USA population have travelled at least one mile over the year specifically to spot birds. Is birding a hobby or a sport? Not clear, but if it is a hobby, it is to hobbies as pickleball is to sports, exploding. In phase with this increase in popularity, the Birders Group has almost doubled in size since the start of the pandemic. Questions: Contact Peggy above.

"Disarm the people- that is the best and most effective way to enslave them"

-George Mason

In 1788, Virginian Richard Henry Lee stated that "No free government was ever founded, or ever preserved its liberty, without uniting the characters of the citizen and soldier in those destined for the defense of the state... such are a well-regulated militia, composed of the freeholders, citizen and husbandman, who take up arms to preserve their property, as individuals, and their rights as freemen."

Over the past 238 years since Lee made that statement, our citizens have continued to become Soldiers, Sailors, Marines and Airmen. For over two centuries they have fought for freedom and equality and against tyranny and oppression, with little regard for the cost to their own health and lives. In this 250th year of celebration commemorating our Country's founding, please take time to thank all veterans and active military personnel for their service defending the world's beacon of freedom, the United States of America.

One of two tables set up across the hall for solo practice.

We have been asked why we only have three tables set up in the Copper Center when sometimes we had five set up at Catalina Vista. The reason is that the recent move is temporary and when construction is completed, we will be moved across the hall where all five tables will again be available. But we gained with the interim move because now the three tables are set up permanently, allowing both club and non-club members to play almost any time. This increased availability has also allowed us to start beginner and rusty-player sessions to coach reluctant players back into the game. For those of you who played ping-pong when younger and keep thinking about getting back into it, here is your chance. Look for announcements for times and dates in This Week in SCOV. Questions: Contact John or Peggy above.

The 2025/2026 tennis season was a great success, marked by rousing competition in the men's, ladies' and mixed tournaments as well as several fun weekend beer and pizza socials. Now that many of our seasonal residents have gone home for the summer, tennis remains active at early and late times to counter the midday heat. Improved LED lighting on courts 5 and 6 makes after dinner play a popular option for the summer members. If you're just looking to work on your game, check out our new Playmate Ball Machine. "I was going to interview 2 agents but after meeting with Brenda and seeing her presentation and what she would do for me, I hired her on the spot! I feel Brenda has excellent marketing skills. She reaches a wide audience for her client. Maybe the strongest asset she has is in negotiating any issues such as work conditions. She saved me thousands of dollars in the approach she used to the buyer's agent in addressing inspection-related work orders. Overall, it was a good experience and I would recommend Brenda to others selling their home."
