

It's More Than Living... It's A Lifestyle!

Sitting at the foot of the majestic Catalina Mountains, bathed in breathtaking pink and orange sunsets, Sun City Oro Valley is the active adult community to envy. Nestled among rolling hills of Palo Verde trees and stately saguaro cactus, we believe you'll agree that Sun City Oro Valley is a unique lifestyle.

When our residents aren't taking in the scenery, they're active with more than 120 clubs offering arts, crafts, sports, dance, games, classes, and of course an award winning championship 18-hole golf course.

Sun City Oro Valley also takes pride in its classic Del Webb design. The community broke ground in 1986, but today is built-out, owned by its homeowners' association and financially sound with ample asset reserves.

Meticulous maintenance of our buildings and grounds reflect the pride of ownership and strong sense of community that makes living in Sun City Oro Valley a lifestyle. Many visitors are surprised that the community isn't brand new.

The Sun City Oro Valley homeowners association took over from Del Webb in 1996. We are a residential community designed by the Del Webb Corporation specifically for people age 45 and older to socialize, exercise, play, learn—and enjoy a lifestyle of incomparable richness.

Activities If it's not tee time, it's time for exercising, dancing, hiking, cultural clubs, woodworking, painting, quilting, games and sports to name a few activities. Opportunities to build friendships and explore new directions are limitless.

Amenities Whether your goal is staying in shape or trying something new, you'll find Sun City Oro Valley is the place to get you going. Fitness and fun amenities include:

- Aquatic & Fitness Center
- 18-hole golf course
- Café
- Pickleball courts
- 3 recreation centers
- Tennis
- Racquetball
- 2 swimming pools (one Olympic-sized)
- Dance studio
- Billiards
- Dog park
- Miles of winding trails, sidewalks and path
- WiFi in all buildings

Tap into your creative side with the silversmithing and lapidary workshops, art studios, the genealogy lab or the computer learning center.

If you love to read, the community library has more than 15,000 titles. The Institute of Learning in Retirement provides a broad range of educational experiences in an encouraging format right here on site.

Location Tucked inside a master-planned community just north of Tucson, Arizona, Sun City Oro Valley is close enough to the advantages of a large city without being too close. Our residents say the distance fits their lifestyle: close enough to reach all the attractions, including the University of Arizona, while enjoying the quiet beauty of a suburban setting. The Town of Oro Valley was recently ranked the 8th safest in the U.S.

Three mountain ranges surrounding Sun City Oro Valley serve a visual feast of unique desert plants and animals. The tallest range, the Catalina Mountains, is awash in vivid colors daily, courtesy of the beautiful hues of Sonoran Desert sunrises and sunsets. Hikers, bicyclists, walkers and nature enthusiasts enjoy a variety of trails, winding sidewalks and scenic golf cart paths throughout the community.

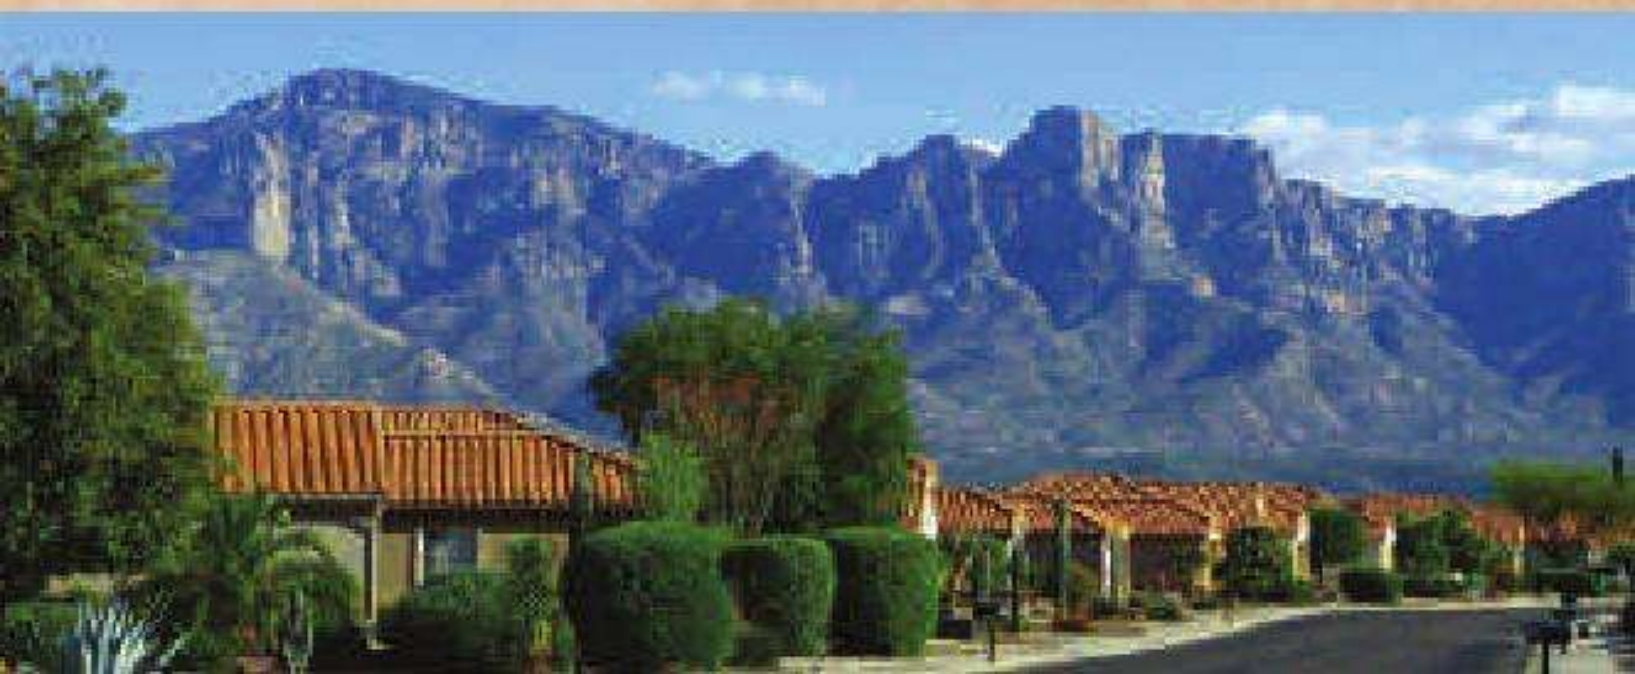

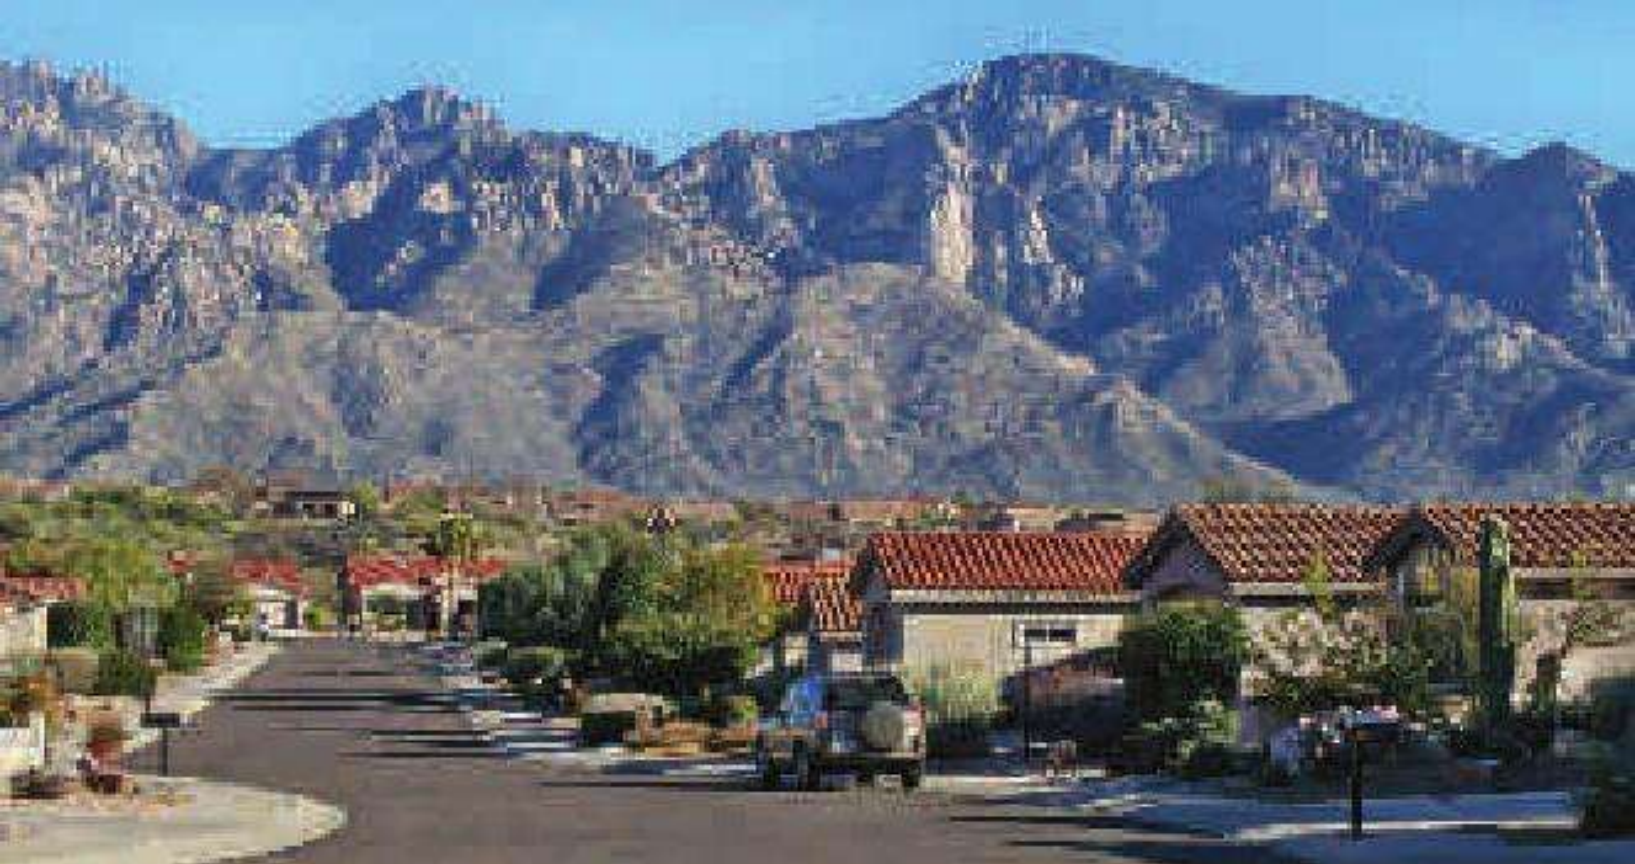

Site Sun City Oro Valley, sits on a 1000-acre site with 36% of the space allocated to common area. The Views golf course and the nearby Catalina Mountains are focal points. Urgent care, medical/diagnostic services and shopping centers are located nearby. Fire and police stations with emergency vehicles are located within the community.

Houses There are 2488 homes in the community ranging from 1000 to 2700 square feet with resales priced from the mid $100s to the mid $500s. All houses have sidewalks and are one story. Some houses are available for rent and listed in the Tipster's classified ads and on our referral board and website.

People There are over 4000 residents, ages 45 and up. Over 60% of the residents live here year round. Most people will cite the community's location, well kept appearance and the large number of activities as their reasons for moving here. We are a quick commute to Tucson for our working population.

Buildings Our Activity Center includes a 450 seat auditorium with an audio visual system, a dance studio, TV lounge and meeting rooms. Satellite recreation facilities house large and small meeting rooms. WiFi is available in all of our buildings. Amenities include state of the art fitness center, two swimming pools, eight tennis courts, five pickleball courts, five bocce courts, an artisan center, library, computer classroom, Café, pro shop and a 9-hole miniature golf course.

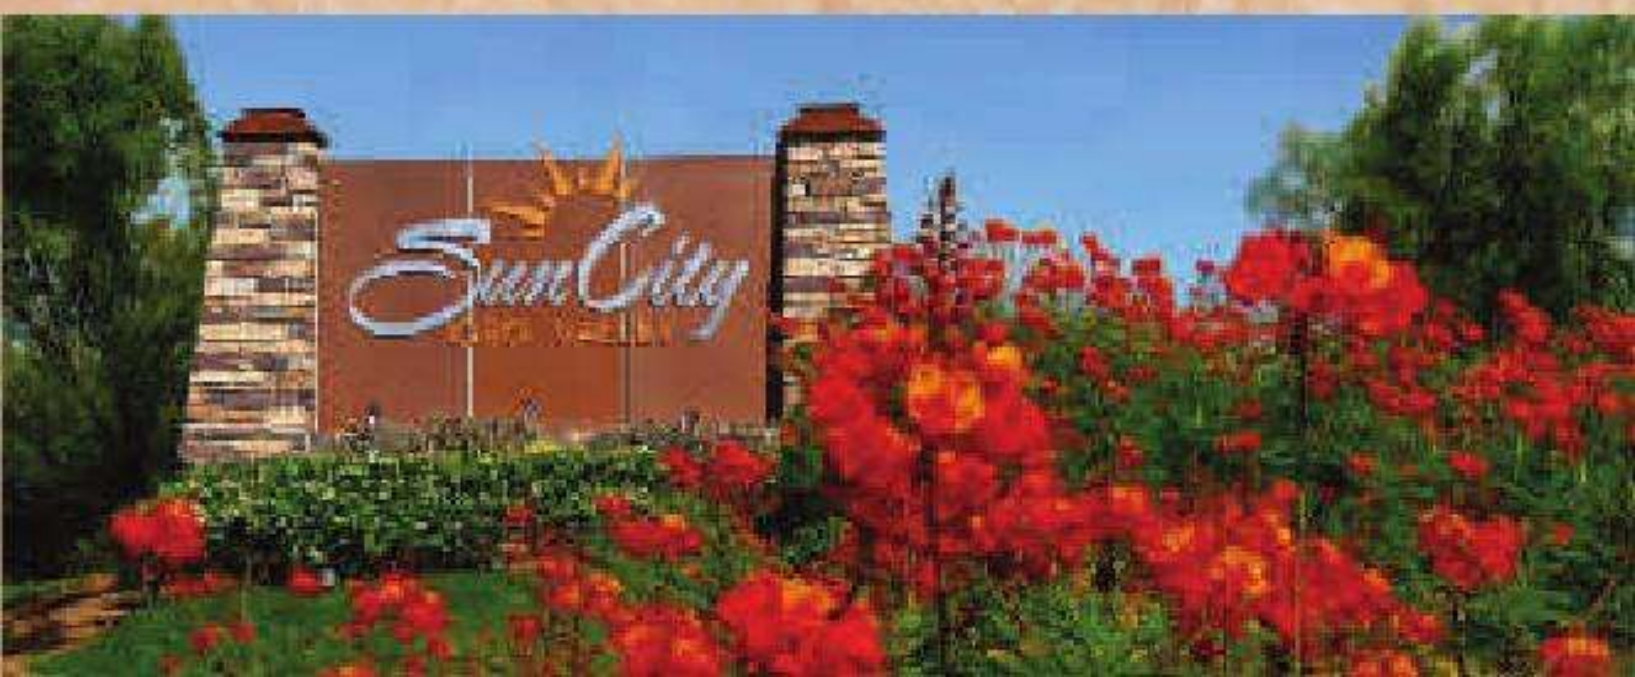

Infrastructure Streets, water lines and sewer lines are owned by the Town of Oro Valley. Because of this it is not the community's responsibility to repair or maintain them.

Operations All homeowners are members of Sun City Oro Valley Homeowners Association. Seven elected residents serve as its Board of Directors to establish policy, approves budgets and assures the financial integrity of the Association. A general manager and a professional staff are responsible for daily operations and maintenance. More than 22 volunteer committees assist the Board in many areas. Sun City Oro Valley is an active adult community operating under age restrictions for those 45 years and older.

Finances Total assets exceed $20 million with annual revenues of more than $6 million. Annual fees per household are very competitive! Our Asset Reserve is adequately funded for repairs and replacement of capital items, and Sun City Oro Valley has NO debt.

Community Foundation The foundation is a 501(c)3 qualified charitable foundation. It was created in 1998 and aspires to make a unique value-added contribution toward elevating and expanding the life experiences of SCOV residents. To date the foundation has received over 1800 donations totaling more than $500,000.

The Views

Golf Club at Oro Valley

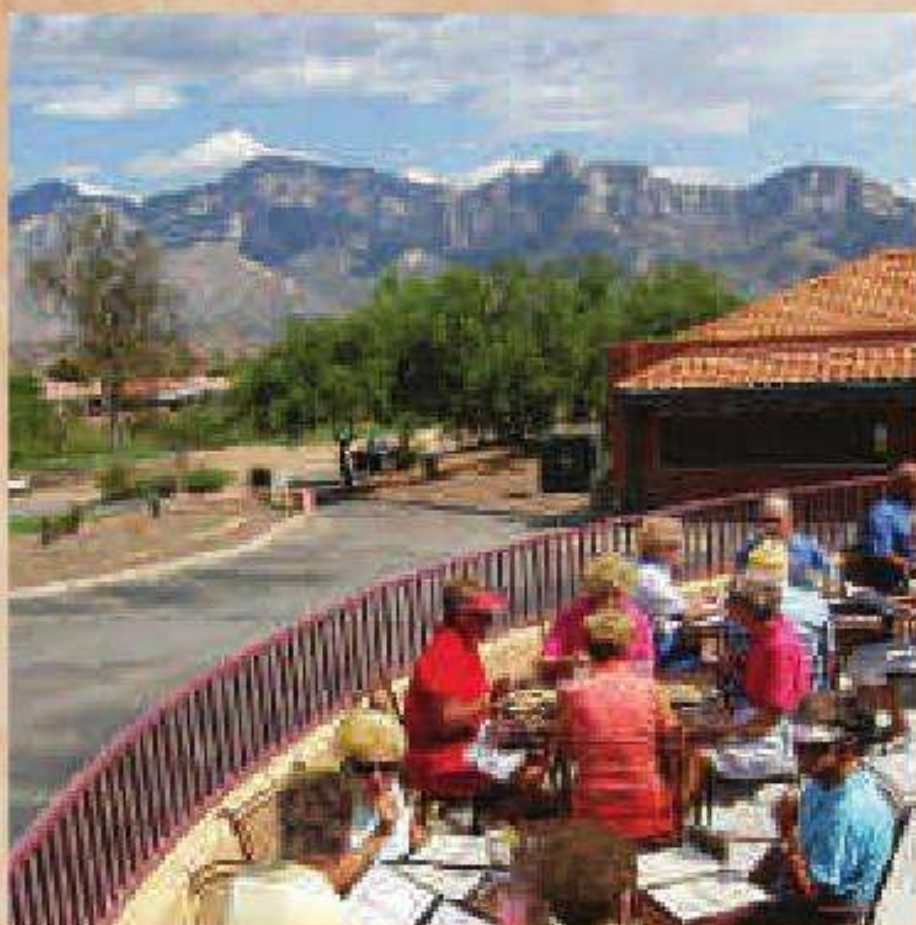

TheViewsGolfClub.com

There's a good reason why it's called The Views Golf Club at Oro Valley. In the shadows of the Catalina Mountains, a fresh, clean breeze drifts off the desert and invites you toward the unique beauty of the award-winning 18-hole golf course.

A spectacular experience in desert golf, The Views has earned a reputation as a hidden gem in the rich Southern Arizona golf scene. Starting with the elevated tee shot from the first tee to the challenging approach on number 18, the course will test your skills. With multiple sets of tees on every hole, you can choose your own challenge.

A community-owned course, The Views offers annual passes, punch cards and daily fee rates. The Views allows members to use private electric carts on the course and offers rental carts. From the full-service pro shop, golfers can arrange lessons from PGA professionals or practice on a full swing driving range and the complete short game practice area. The Views offers 18 and 9 hole leagues for men and women. Weekly events mix all members while couples can play various tournaments, mixers and special events through the year.

After golfing, take in the views of the Catalina Mountains at The Café on our outdoor patio. Enjoy a variety of refreshments from the menu and full service bar.

Ideal Location

Sun City Oro Valley, located in the master planned community of Rancho Vistoso, has an ideal location, close to local shopping venues, medical centers, restaurants and cinemas and not too distant from Tucson to enjoy the best the city has to offer.
